Another note that I forgot to add: if you do not wish to download from the Scribd site, it is available on the .gov site as well in traditional .pdf format.

Ben,

Please take this as a friendly, constructive comment: I think it would be best if you send out links that are from the EPA site and not a commercial site ... this site is trying to get me to sign up for stuff when I try to download a copy of the flyer.

I suggest you re-send it with the EPA link.

Regards,

Harvey
